Or, Where does Anything meet spirituality?

Let us begin at the natural beginning. What is Spirituality?

Before delving into this, I would like to present this idea that formed to me, through many a realisations & epiphanies over time.

The idea is:

There seems to be 3 realms.(Don't ask, of what? - I don't know)

3rd Realm: The Realm Of Our Experiences of Life & ourselves, & the other beings and non beings The 2nd Realm: The Realm Of The Collective - The Manifested Duality - The Self, The Collective including & Included in, every being & non being, Stars & Worlds & Planets & The Universe.

1st Realm: The Realm Of The Unmanifested - The Unmanifested, All Encompassing, Non-Duality, The Beyond, The Full & Empty Infinite, The Everything, The Nothing, The Unknown, The Chaos, The Unknowable, The Consciousness. This we are somehow able to feel and get a glimpse of in the Realm Of Our Experiences too , but yet beyond perception.

The asking of the question, 'what is spirituality', my writing this essay, the thoughts & actions as efforted by my Brain, the Mind, & the Body, all falls within the Realm of Our Experiences - The 3rd Realm

But all those different epiphanies, realizations,randomly happening over time, that formed the ideas & the article that is being written today, to me feels like belonging to the Realm of The Collective -The 2nd Realm,
The Realm Of The Manifested Duality, The Collective, The Self;
For, these flashes of epiphanies, the flashes of the Beyond, the flashes of the Self Within, were not thoughts efforted by the Mind, but were,
Experienced, as a flicker of current, produced by a micro milli-second of connection with The Collective & The Unmanifested;
Experienced, as a flush of Love, with a deep sense of Groundlessness & a pit in the stomach, it brings along;
Experienced, as the waves of Ocean flowing, gushing, rushing,swelling, Surfing & Surging through, & around;
Experienced, as Blessings, bestowed upon.

Now, thinking about, What brings on these epiphanies, realizations, moments of Oneness, the Blessings, into Our Realm of Experiences?

I imagine/have come to a realization /theorize, that there is a fundamental,inherent, ever present, self operated, desire or intent, of The Collective, The Self, The Manifested Duality to Become One with The Unmanifested Non-Duality, The Consciousness, The Empty Infinite, from which it came & of which it is a part of.

This Yearning/Desire/Intent, Of The Self, is the Energy powering & sustaining Its Manifestations - The Life, The Worlds, The Beings, The Things, The 3rd Realm, The Self's path to find its way back to Oneness.

The Manifestations are The Self's effort to find its way back to Oneness.
The close knit, cause and effect , relationship between all Living, & Life are all
It also, Is the same Manifestations, i.e The Life,The Living & The Non Living are that, Which Separate The Self & The Consciousness

This drive of The Self is also projected on to the Manifestations of The Self- Such as you , me, my dog, my plant, etc. So, we also, inherently, deep down, sub-consciously carry the yearning for Oneness.

While the magic is everywhere, all the time,
While Life, Experiences, Art, Science, Love are all doors, and path to Oneness,
While, this yearning for Oneness and the magic we experience, with every tiny glimpse of it, are beyond our software & hardware & Is The Driver;

For us to experience it, within our awareness & perception, our responsibility is to ??????

If On The Realm Of Experience, Life - To Grow, To Sustain Biologically & Psychologically Is The Drive , Driving this from the 2nd Realm, Is the Drive to be One with the Unmanifested, Non Duality.

The close knit, cause and effect , relationship between all Living, & Life are all
It also, Is the same Manifestations, i.e The Life,The Living & The Non Living are that, Which Separate The Self & The Consciousness
